Reminder: Join us today to learn about "A Smarter Colorado"

Please join our conference call today to learn more about the November vote for Governor Ritter's "Smarter Colorado" initiative. This initiative is a unique opportunity to raise an additional $25 million for Great Outdoors Colorado to preserve wildlife habitat across the state. Please see the CCLT email from Monday, August 18 for additional background.

Exciting Staff Developments at CCLT

I am very proud to welcome Greg Yankee to CCLT! Due to the generous support of the Colorado Conservation Trust, Greg will be our Conservation Fellow for the next two years. This addition completes CCLT's permanent 3-person staff of myself, Greg, and Office Manager Jeannie McGinnis.

About Greg: He recently graduated from the University of Michigan Law School, where he studied natural resource, land use, and nonprofit law. Before Michigan, he studied political science and comparative humanities at Bucknell University and spent a semester at University College Cork in Ireland. Greg's family has roots throughout rural Michigan. He particularly enjoys the peaches and cherries from his uncle's orchards and the vegetables from his grandfather's land. Greg and his siblings spent many family "vacations" while growing up helping pick produce and clean barns. Greg brings with him diverse nonprofit experience and expertise having worked on issues ranging from poverty and fair housing to education and youth development. He will be assisting us with public policy development, organizational management, and educational initiatives.

2007 Annual Report Available

Our 2007 annual report is now posted online. Please take a look to learn more about CCLT's funding and what we accomplished in 2007.

Thank you so much to our star summer intern George Harvey for his hard work on many projects, including the design of this report and our new email format!
