

Land Officer for Pitkin County, Colorado's Open Space and Trails (OST) program. Full-time salaried position will administer post-acquisition assets including conservation easements (CE) in compliance with State and Land Trust Alliance standards. Duties include conservation easement monitoring and reporting, property file management and GIS mapping. Minimum educational requirement is a Bachelor's degree in Biology, Geology, Outdoor Recreation, Outdoor/Environmental Education, or Urban Planning. Requires proficiency with GIS and GPS applications; experience in the field of land conservation; plant and noxious weed identification capabilities; knowledge of technologies for producing and archiving records; skilled in electronic communication and report production application; ability to communicate orally and in writing with solid proof reading skills; possess or obtain a valid Colorado Driver's license; and have an acceptable driving record. Application deadline is 5 p.m. March 19, 2010. Submit application online at www.aspenpitkin.com/countyjobs